

Together for the Best

A New Choice for Caring Parents

Every parent has the right to love their child, and every child deserves to be loved by both parents.

兒少遭父 / 母 / 親屬擅帶離家失蹤服務
英文版

Services for Children Abducted or Taken Away by Parents or Relatives

Consultation Line:

04-22025399 Extension 5
(This hotline is answered in Mandarin, but translation services can be scheduled)

Available Monday to Friday

09 : 00~18 : 00

Family Mediation
Services Website

衛生福利部社會及家庭署
Social and Family Affairs Administration, Ministry of Health and Welfare

兒福聯盟
Child Welfare League Foundation

Laws and Resources Related to "Family Abductions"

Q1 What is the meaning of Family Abductions?

A1 It refers to a situation where a parent or relative (within three degrees of kinship) takes, detains, or hides a minor, resulting in their disappearance.

Q2 What laws might be violated when a child is taken away by a parent or relative?

A2 It may constitute a crime of "family interference." It is also possible to make a claim for damages under the Civil Code.

Q3 My child has been taken away, and I don't know where he/she is. What should I do?

A3 Report the disappearance to a nearby police station or precinct without waiting for 24 hours.

Q4 Besides reporting to the police, what additional resources are available?

A4 Please call for inquiries. Our social workers will discuss the situation and provide resources to find solutions.

Co-parenting Tips for Parents

♥ Stabilize Your Emotions

In a conflict, any emotion is considered normal. Deep breaths can help regulate emotions and signal to the brain to know that one is safe and in control of the situation.

♥ Respect Each Other's Differences

It is important to note that everyone has their own perspective and that there is no absolute right or wrong. There is no doubt that people have differing opinions, but it is important for all to respect one another.

♥ Maintain Flexible Communication

Maintaining open communication and staying rational are both crucial for children's wellbeing.

♥ Seek Third-party Assistance

The family mediation service can be useful in finding the best solution for the child and achieving a win-win situation for the parents and children involved.

